

2025 Summer Law Clerk Applications

Barnhouse Keegan Solimon & West LLP is seeking a summer law clerk for 2025. This is a paid, in-person, full-time clerkship from mid-May to mid-August 2025, dependent on school schedules. The position is open to current 1L or 2L students. Candidates should possess strong writing and analytical skills and a demonstrated interest in federal Indian law. The clerkship will provide an opportunity to work on a wide range of legal research and writing assignments supporting the Firm's litigation and transactional practices.

If interested, send a cover letter, resume, transcript, and writing sample (please limit to 5 pages) to jrogers@indiancountrylaw.com, by Friday February 28, 2025. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis.

About the Firm: Barnhouse Keegan Solimon & West is a full-service law firm based in Albuquerque, New Mexico, dedicated to serving native people, tribal and business interests throughout the United States. Our team of attorneys brings a wealth of expertise addressing Indian law issues and the specialized needs of native tribal governments and entities.